Members Expected to Arrive Here Tomorrow to Complete Organization.

HAVE GATHERED FACTS ON LOCATION OF BANKS

Sccretary McAdoo Hopes to Have Institutions Ready for Business by January 1.

The members of the federal farm loan board are expected to arrive in Washingmorning and to take the steps toward completing an organization for the putting into effect of the law. The members of the board, accompanied by Secretary McAdoo, have for a number o weeks been traveling through the northern and central portions of the country collecting information that will guide them in the establishment of the federal land banks provided by the law. There are to be twelve of these and hearings have been held at many points, generally state capitals, for the purpose of gathering facts and sentiment as to the best points to locate these banks. The hoard is expected to make a trip through the south shortly, before finally fixing the location of the banks. Will Perfect Organization.

For the next ten days or two weeks the board is expected to take up the matter of the personnel of the organization and getting things in readiness here to go forward with the work when the twelve land banks are established. Just how many appointments to the clerical force will be made at this time is not known, but the number now likely will not be large, it is said.

Secretary McAdoo hopes to have the land bank location decided and the entire organization correlated and the entire organization correlated.
